DFL Party cancels conventions, moves to online balloting

Tuesday, March 17: Last night, an emergency meeting of the Minnesota DFL Party Executive Committee made the decision to cancel all local conventions and proceed with the endorsement and resolutions process via an online balloting system. This decision was made to ensure all DFL Party events are in compliance with advice from public health officials to cease small group gatherings.

No decision has yet been made regarding the Minnesota DFL state convention.

“In light of the recent guidance from the CDC and the State of Minnesota, the Minnesota DFL Party’s executive committee made the decision to have the business of all of our conventions conducted by an online balloting system,” said Ken Martin, chairman of the Minnesota DFL. “We understand the challenges this poses, but we believe this process preserves the power of grassroots activists to decide who our party supports and what our party stands for while simultaneously protecting the health and well-being of Minnesotans everywhere.”

“The cancellation of DFL conventions in favor of an online balloting system was not an easy decision to come to, but it is imperative that we all step up and do our part to protect our communities,” added Martin.

The Minnesota DFL will prohibit any official DFL-sponsored event, at all levels in the party, where more than 10 people would gather in person from Saturday, March 14, to Thursday, May 28. At this point the DFL state convention is still being planned as an in-person event, though that may change those plans based on further guidance from federal, state, and local officials and public health agencies.
